Reconciling

For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: Romans 8:15:16

In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Ephesian 1:16

Before starting your new life with the Lord, it's essential to desire a relationship with Him (a vertical relationship). Imagine yourself as a newborn; you need nourishment to thrive and care to grow. First, you must come to know the Lord, understand His ways, and finally walk in those ways. As you grow, you can disciple others, building a community that helps one another transform into the image of Christ.

Begin to understand the root cause of any addiction.

Science tells us that the root cause of addiction lies within the subconscious mind. Our values, or lack thereof, play a significant role in shaping our life experiences. Scripture explains that it is our sinful nature that drives us towards addiction. However, we now have a new life guided by the Holy Spirit, who leads us through the teachings of the Word. We have the free will to choose which path to follow, in contrast to being previously led by the forces of Satan, which encouraged us to succumb to our sinful nature.

CARES OF THE WORLD

The world serves as our teacher, imparting lessons through life experiences, values, and beliefs. These values and beliefs will be different in country to country and culture to culture.

Children of Disobedience

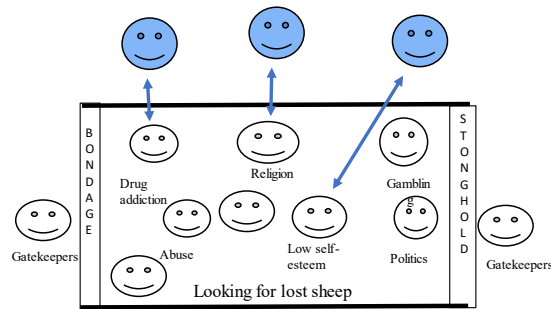

For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. 1 John 2:16

Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: Ephesians 2:2

Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: Colossians 3:9-10

Kingdom Ministry Reconciliation

And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; 2 Corinthians 5:18

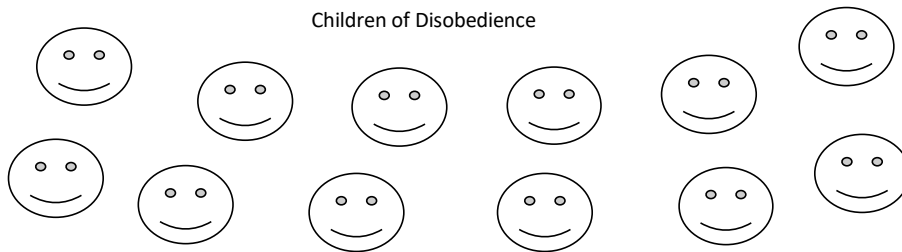

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.
Ephesian 2:10

And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

Reconciliation

Values + Beliefs= Identity

Children of Disobedience

Values are principles, ideals or standards of behavior while beliefs are convictions that we generally accept to be true.

LUTHER'S Values + Beliefs= Identity Diet of Worms of 1521

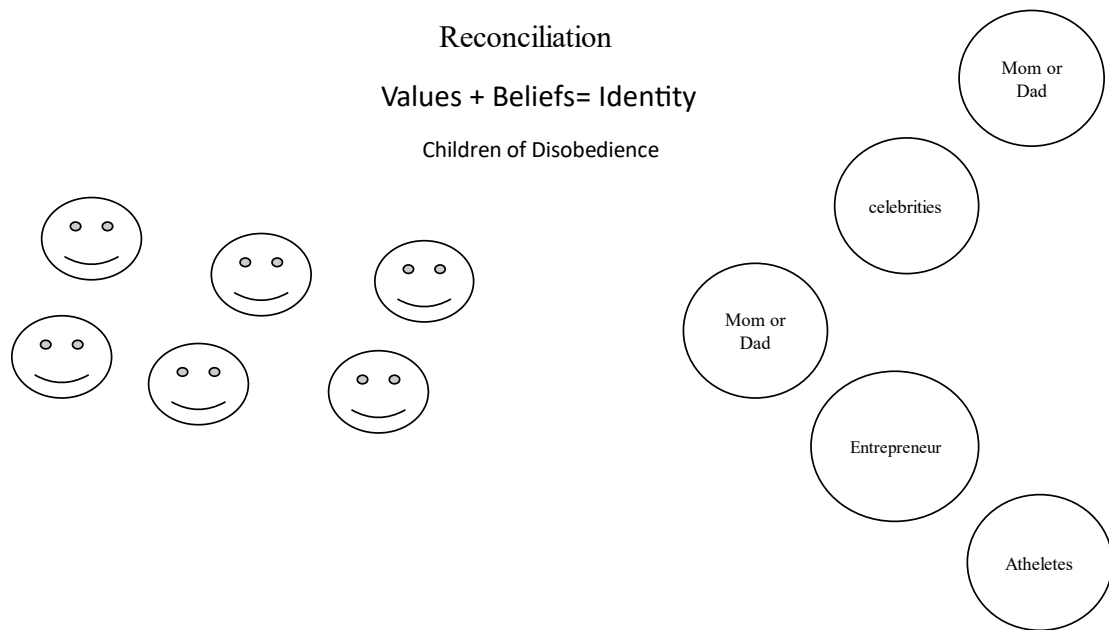

Since your most serene majesty and your lordships require of me a simple, clear and direct answer, I will give one, and it is this: Unless I am convinced by the testimony of the Scriptures and by clear reason (for I do not trust in the pope or councils alone, since it is well known that they have often erred and contradicted themselves), I am bound by the Scriptures I have quoted. My conscience is captive to the Word of God. I cannot and I will not retract anything, since it is neither safe nor right to go against conscience. Here I stand. I cannot do otherwise. God help me. Amen.

- Scripture alone is the only infallible source of truth about God, faith, and life.
- God's righteousness is a gift by which he declares the sinner to be righteous for the sake of Jesus Christ, received through faith. Or to put it succinctly:
- Salvation is by God's grace alone, received through faith alone.
- God's people have direct access to God through Jesus Christ; no saint or clergy has any better means of accessing God.
- Indulgences were a terrible abuse of ordinary people's pious faith.

What are your Beliefs?

The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint -heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Romans 8:16 -17

That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Ephesians 4:22 -24

“You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden . Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven . Matt. 5:14-16

A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another . By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another .” John 13:34-35

New Identity

As we develop our new identity, we can expect to face significant challenges. Adversity will arise, and we should be aware that negative influences may still linger in our subconscious. It's normal to experience inner struggles as we strive to fulfill the Lord's purpose for our lives. As mentioned earlier, any new idea that contradicts our former selves will likely encounter resistance.

So, where do we begin? Let's start with the foundational formula: values + beliefs = identity. This is how our identity is shaped within the programming system. Previously, we could see ourselves as akin to the Devil's AI, but now we recognize ourselves as belonging to the Lord, as sons of God. This marks our first acknowledgment of a new life as His children. Our identity is that of a son, and just as Jesus is the Son of God, we are called to reflect Him. Jesus consistently communicated with the Father and submitted His will, saying, "Nevertheless, not my will, but Thine, be done."

Our priority should be to draw closer to the Lord in preparation for the battle ahead. Paul spent many years in seclusion, training to become an instrument of God. Unfortunately, many new believers do not receive adequate guidance. In the Learning Center workbooks, we aim to provide resources that help you understand God's perspective on His creation. This transformation requires significant change, but we have the Holy Spirit as our strength and guide in this new life in Christ.

In the past, we escaped the chaos of life through activities like entertainment, drugs, alcohol, exercise, and vacations. Escape from reality is the hope of mankind. This has been the consequence since the fall of Adam. The angst within ourselves futilely seeks to escape the reality of condemnation. We might not realize this, but it is. The Lord saved us from this so that we may fulfill the purpose of Jesus Christ to reconcile all of creation to Him. Now that we have a Godly perspective through the Holy Spirit. He will teach all things according to His will to help us grow in Him.

Being grounded in your new Identity as a child of God. As infants, we depended on our parents to guide and to care for our needs. In our new life, it is the same. As Jesus sought guidance from the Father, we also need to seek guidance. This will begin with the understanding of His Word. "

His Word is crucial to our growth. As we start, we should take a survey of all scripture. What is the plan of God, and how do I fit into it (Biblical world view book)? We need to renew our minds from the programming of the old ways. Memorization is key. Scriptures says Psalms 119:10-11 "With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments. Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee." Psalms 119: 27 "Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wondrous works."

As we put into our hearts scripture like this, we can combat those thoughts that have captivated the old way. There will be pushback because the old man will not go down easily.

Find other believers of like-mindedness to be accountable to. As scriptures state, "Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Ephesian 5:16

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things Philippians 4:7-8

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. Roman 12:2

Our time with the Lord is precious. There is no better place to be. Amen
